1982 YEARBOOK EDITORS

KATHI GUERTIN, Editor-In-Chief

CARLA MAZZARIELLO, Asst. Editor

Last September was not only the beginning of a new school year, but also a new yearbook. At that time, we began to construct the first pages of the 1982 yearbook. Our staff worked together not to form these first pages, but an entire book which recaptures those special memories, events, and times together we all shared throughout our years at M.S.J.

Although deadlines were close, pictures were sometimes lacking, and staff members were pressured for time, we all seemed to pull together and produce this life long remembrance which we hope will bring you laughter and happiness.

In closing, we would like to thank each person who had a hand in composing this yearbook: the other editors, advisors, staff members, and the rest of the M.S.J. community who were so helpful to us in completing the 1982 yearbook.

Love and Care,

Kathi + Carla

To The Class of 1982

Four years make up a very small portion of a person's lifetime. But when those four years are one's high school years they are years never to be forgotten. They are important years because they are filled with friendships, memories and dreams.

The memories no one can take from you. The friendships will last if you want them to and if you are willing to work to preserve them.

Dreams, however, are another matter. Be sure your dream is what you really want, from and for life. We very often obtain our dreams.

Is your dream something that will last? Can it be taken away from you? Will you grow tired of it? Will it make you the person God wants you to be?

Saint Augustine said at the moment of his conversion and at the end of a long search "Our hearts were meant for Thee O Lord, and they shall not rest until they rest in Thee." Think about that statement and make it the heart of your dreams and watch your dreams become a beautiful reality.

Love and Prayers,

Peter Lavelley

There are many teachers and many coaches here at M.S.J., but in Mr. "Funzie" Cioffi we have both, as well as a good friend. Mr. Cioffi devotes much of his time to all of these areas and, not only produces excellent football players, but also good students who love and respect him. We would like to thank him for all he has done for our class and for the M.S.J. community as we, the class of 1982, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Alfonso "Funzie" Cioffi.

To Autumn

Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness,
Close bosom-friendships of the maturing sun;
Conspiring with him how to load and to bless
With fruit the vines that round the thatch-eaves run;
To bend with apples the mossed cottage-trees,
And gild all fruit with ripeness to the core;
To swell the gourd, and plump the hazel shells
With a sweet kernel; to set budding more,
And still more, later flowers for the bees,
Until they think warm days will never cease,
For summer has over-brimmed the clattering cess.

Who hath not seen thee off amidst thy store?
Sometimes who ever seeks abroad may find
Thee sifting cartless on a granary floor,
Thy haft soft-lifted by the winnowing wind;
Or on a half-reaped furrow sound asleep,
Drowsed with the somnolent poppies, while thy hook
Sparties the next swath and all its twined flowers:
And sometimes like a gleaner thou dost keep
Steady thy laden head across a brook;
Or by a cider-press, with patient look,
Thou watchest the last oozings float by hours.

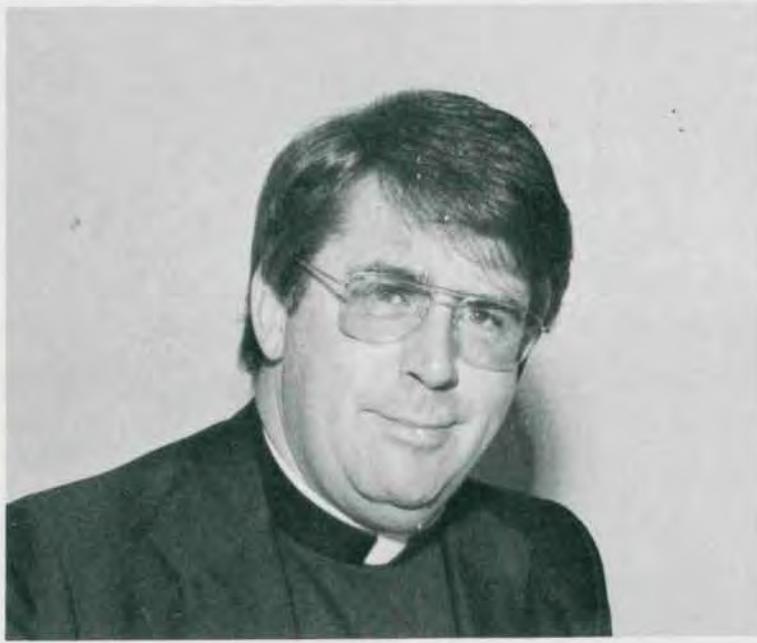

Where are the songs of Spring? Dye, where are they?
Think not of them, thou hast thy music too —
While barred clouds bloom the soft-dying day,
And touch the stubble-plains with tosy hue;
Then is it wailful ghost the stricken knaps mourn
Among the tattered sailaws, borne aloft
Or sinking as the light wistless live or die;
And full-grown lambs loud bleat from hilly boons;
Hedge chickens sing; and now with fresh scoff
The red-breast whistles from a garden-coff;
And gathering swallows twissle in the skies.

SENIORS

Intimations of Immortality...

Then sing, ye Birds, sing, sing a joyous song!
And let the young Lambs bound
As to theabor's sound!

We sin thought will join your throns,
Ye that pipe and ye that play,
Ye that through your heart so-day
Feel the gladness of the May!

What though the radiance which was once bright.

Be now for ever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower;

We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remarts behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having seen must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death
In years that bring the philosophic mind...

Ode to the Class of 82...

Youthful students wondering why we were going to M.S.J. Entering secretly that first day with great expectations and deep down regrets. Realizing we had to leave that child world of fantasy. Now we must face the real world where things are so changey.

Wild and daring we can do anything and everything. No Algebra test or English word is beyond our grasp. Scurrying scavenger, hunting his prey - you found a sport that needed you! Freshmen year was a friendly year, everyone searching and seeking for that specialness.

Bonds are now made and togetherness is our chief concern. Now we can look back and laugh at the past. Now we must look ahead and dream about the future. Time passed quickly and happily. Lazily we said good bye to Sophomore year!

Slight traces of concern are visible on our foreheads. Are we taking the right classes and participating in worthwhile activities? Caught daydreaming frequently, ah yes - the Junior Prom what a success. Looks like all those dreams can come true. We slipped out of Junior Year wiping our brows - we made it!

Well experienced pros by now, we know every excuse and trick in the book. Rulers, we all are. We are the kings in the mighty kingdoms of M.S.J.. We are now one total unit and nothing could separate us, not years or even miles. Our goals made, our plans sealed, we trust ambitious and longingly enter the world. We wave our Senior year adieu with tears and sweet memories.

Wild and daring is what we are now, nothing can stop us or get in our way. The Class of "82" leaves this ode to you M.S.J. and we hope to remain here forever this way!

Ode on the Death of a Favourite Cat...

'Twas on a lofty vase's side
Where Christa's gayest art had dyed
The azure flowers, that blow;
Daintiest of the tabby kind
The passive Selima reclined,
Gazed on the lake below.

Her conscious tail her joy declared;
The fair round face, the snowy beard,
The velvet of her paws,
Her ears of jet, and emerald eyes,
Her coat, that with the tortoise rises,
She saw, and uttered applause.

Still had she gazed; but thidst the tide
Two angel forms were seen to glide,
The Genius of the streams:

These scaly amours' Tytans hue
Bro'tshest purple to the view
Betrayed a golden gleam.

The hapless Nymph with wonder saw:
A whisker first and then a claw
With many an ardent wish,
She stretched in vain to reach the prize.
What female heart can gods despise?
What cat's averse to fish? .....

SOPHOMORES

Ode On a Grecian Urn

Thou still unravished bride of quietness,
Thou foster child of Silence and slow Time,
Sylvan historian, who canst thus express
A flowery face more sweetly than our little—
What leaf-fringed legend haunts about thy Shapes of deities or mortals, or of both,
In Temple or the dales of Arcady?
What men or gods are these? What maidens loath?
What mad pursuit? What struggle to escape?
What pipes and timbrels? What wild ecstasies?

Heard melodies are sweet, but those unheard
Are sweeter; therefore, ye soft' pipes, play on;
Not to the sensual ear, but, more endear'd,
Pipe to the spirit ditties of no tone.
Fair youth, beneath the trees, thou canst not leave
Thy song, nor ever can those trees be bare;
Bold lover never, never canst thou kiss,
Though winning near the goal—yet, do not desire;
She cannot fade, though thou hast not thy
bliss,
Forever wilt thou love, and she be fair! . . .

FRESHMEN

Ode To A Nightingale

My heart aches, and a drowsy numbness pains
My sense, as though of Hemlock I had drunk,
Or emptied some dull opiate to the drains
One minute past and Lethe-wards had sunk
'Tis not through envy of the happy lot,
But being too happy it is thine happiness —
That thou, light-winged Dryad of the trees,
In some melodious plot
Of breeches green, and shadows numberless,
Singest of summer in full-throated ease.

O, for a draught of vintage! That hath been
Cooled for a long age in the deep delvèd earth,
Tasting of flora and the country green,
Dance and provencal song, and sunburnt
Briars!

O for a beaker full of the warm South,
Full of the truth, the blushing Hippocrite,
With bearded bubbles wrinkling at the brim,
And purple-stained mouth
That I might drink, and leave the world unseen,
And with the fare away into the forest drifts —...

This ongoing tradition of the M.S.J. Student Senate was a valuable success again this year. The children from V.A.C. had the opportunity to see an M.S.J. football victory, and they were entertained with a party afterwards. The Student Senate would like to thank those who helped by escorting a child, contributing food and making for a memorable day. Thank you, Debbie Bourgeois.

The walk-a-thon was a new idea to help with the finances of our school by the student body. The participants walked a total of 10 miles and collected sponsors which amounted to over eight thousand dollars. The members of Student Senate thank those people who did not walk for all of their help in the organization of the entire project; without them this endeavor could not have been a success. This project will become a tradition of the M.S.J. community. Thank you for all of your contributions. Debbie Bourgeois

SCHOOL BOARD

Putting together a yearbook is quite a lot of responsibility and hard work. Many times the deadlines are tight but everyone manages to pull together and get the work done. People recognize our accomplishments but the editors seem the only ones who receive the credit. But there are many staff members who deserve equal credit; we never could have done it without their help. For this reason the following page is dedicated to them. I really appreciate each one of them.

Thanx everyone!!

Love,
Kath
